RE: Notice of Name Change of NextG Networks of NY, Inc. dba NextG Networks East to Crown Castle NG East Inc.

Dear Ms. Boyd:

NextG Networks of NY, Inc. dba NextG Networks East ("NextG") hereby notifies the Public Services Commission of South Carolina ("Commission") of its name change to Crown Castle NG East Inc.

NextG is authorized to provide resold and facilities-based local exchange and interexchange telecommunications services and RF transport services throughout the state of South Carolina pursuant to Order 2007-81 in Docket 2006-305-C. On February 3, 2012, NextG notified the Commission of its proposed transfer of control to Crown Castle Solutions Corp. in Matter ID # 235077. The transfer was consummated on April 10, 2012.

The purpose of NextG's name change is to enable it to align its legal name with how it is identified, and recognized by, its customers and the general public. The requested name change exclusively relates to a legal name change and is not sought in conjunction with any merger, acquisition, consolidation or other change in corporate structure or ownership that would require separate Commission authority.

NextG respectfully requests that the Commission change its records and our certificate of public convenience and necessity held by NextG to reflect the name change to "Crown Castle NG East Inc."

Furthermore, NextG respectfully requests that thirty (30) day public notice requirement be waived since NextG does not have any end-user customers. NextG's customers are other certificated carriers such as AT&T and Verizon Wireless. NextG is currently in negotiations with AT&T for an interconnection agreement and the waiving of the public notice requirement would speed up these negotiations and allow NextG to sign the agreement hopefully by the end of the year.

No tariffs are currently on file with the Commission; therefore, no tariff updates are being submitted in connection with this name change. However, the following exhibit is attached to show the formal name change of the entity with the South Carolina Secretary of State:

NextG respectfully requests that this filing become effective immediately.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
